

Affidavit and Indemnity Bond

I, _____, being first duly sworn, state that check(s) numbered _____ for $_____ dated _____ issued by The University of North Carolina at Asheville, an agency of the State of North Carolina and drawn on the State Treasurer, and made payable to the order of _____ (check one of the items below):

_____ has/have not been received by me or the payee.

_____ has/have been received by me or the payee but has been lost or stolen.

_____ has/have been received by me or the payee, but has/have since been destroyed.

_____ has/have been examined by me or the payee and the first endorsement is not mine or the payee's, and that neither I nor the payee cashed the check(s) and have never benefited in any manner from said check(s).

I ask to have the State of North Carolina replace said check(s) and, in consideration of the issuance of the replacement check(s) by the State of North Carolina, I will be liable to the State of North Carolina in the sum of $_____ (an amount equal to the sum of the original check(s) at issue). This promise binds myself and each of my heirs, executors and administrators, to repay the sum of _____ which may be pursued or collected by any lawful means or process available to the State of North Carolina. I further hold harmless and indemnify the State of North Carolina against any claim, charge, lawsuit, loss or damage arising from the issuance of the original check(s) or replacement check(s) described herein.
